

Requirement:

You need to integrate the geo features and map into the lost and found mobile app we did last time. based on the following mobile app interface wireframes. A user will enter the location by clicking on the location text box and using autocomplete feature OR by clicking on the GET CURRENT LOCATION button to pick their current location. When a user clicks on the SHOW ON MAP button on the home page, all lost or found items will be shown on the map

